Thursday, April 23, 2009By Marc Morano

'House Democrats don't want Gore humiliated' Climate Depot Exclusive - Updated

Washington, DC -- UK's Lord Christopher Monckton, a former science advisor to Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, claimed House Democrats have refused to allow him to appear alongside former Vice President Al Gore at a high profile global warming hearing on Friday April 24, 2009 at 10am in Washington. Monckton told Climate Depot that the Democrats rescinded his scheduled joint appearance at the House Energy and Commerce hearing on Friday. Monckton said he was informed that he would not be allowed to testify alongside Gore when his plane landed from England Thursday afternoon. "The House Democrats don't want Gore humiliated, so they slammed the door of the Capitol in my face," Monckton told Climate Depot in an exclusive interview. "They are cowards."

According to Monckton, Rep. Joe Barton (R-Texas), Ranking Member on the Energy & Commerce Committee, had invited him to go head to head with Gore and testify at the hearing on Capitol Hill Friday. But Monckton now says that when his airplane from London landed in the U.S. on Thursday, he was informed that the former Vice-President had "chickened out" and there would be no joint appearance. Gore is scheduled to testify on Friday to the Subcommittee on Energy and the Environment's fourth day of hearings on the American Clean Energy and Security Act of 2009. The hearing will be held in 2123 Rayburn House Office Building.

According to Monckton, House Democrats told the Republican committee staff earlier this week that they would be putting forward an unnamed 'celebrity' as their star witness Friday at a multi-panel climate hearing examining the House global warming bill. The "celebrity" witness turned out to be Gore. Monckton said the GOP replied they would respond to the Democrats' "celebrity" with an unnamed "celebrity" of their own. But Monckton claims that when the Democrats were told who the GOP witness would be, they refused to allow him to testify alongside Gore.

[Update: 1:55 PM EST: A GOP House source told Climate Depot that the Democrats on the Committee said "absolutely not" to allowing Monckton to appear during today's Gore hearing. The GOP committee "pushed at multiple levels" to bring Monckton in to testify but the Democrats "refused," according to the GOP source. Former GOP House Speaker Newt Gingrich was called in to testify after Monckton was rejected by the committee Democrats, according to the Congressional source.]

"The Democrats have a lot to learn about the right of free speech under the US Constitution. Congress Henry Waxman's (D-CA) refusal to expose Al Gore's sci-fi comedy-horror testimony to proper, independent scrutiny by the House minority reeks of naked fear," Monckton said from the airport Thursday evening.

"Waxman knows there has been no 'global warming' for at least a decade. Waxman knows there has been seven and a half years' global cooling. Waxman knows that, in the words of the UK High Court judge who condemned Gore's mawkish movie as materially, seriously, serially inaccurate, 'the Armageddon scenario that he depicts is not based on any scientific view," Monckton explained. Monckton has previously testified before the House Committee in March. (See: Monckton: Have the courage to do nothing...US Congress told climate change is not real) Monckton has also publicly challenged Gore to a debate. (See: Al Gore Challenged to International TV Debate on Global Warming By Lord Monckton - March 19, 2007)

A call to the Democratic office of the House Energy and Commerce Committee seeking comment was not immediately returned Thursday night.

Related Links:

More Than 700 International Scientists Dissent Over Man-Made Global Warming Claims

NASA's James Hansen: Skepticism 'can confuse the public'

Monkton's Report: 35 Inconvenient Truths: The errors in Al Gore's movie Monckton: Have the courage to do nothing...US Congress told climate change is not real

Monckton's Letter to Representives Ed Markey & Joe Barton - March 30, 2009

Al Gore Challenged to International TV Debate on Global Warming By Lord Monckton - March 19, 2007

Scientific Smackdown: Skeptics Voted The Clear Winners Against Global Warming Believers in Heated NYC Debate – March 16, 2007

Lord Monckton Declared Victor in Global Warming Debate – By His Opponent! – August 19, 2008

Debate Over Whether 'Global Warming is a Global Crisis' – March 6, 2009

Climate Depot's Morano debates former Clinton Official Romm - April 6, 2009

- New
- Popular
- Past 7 days
- 1. Climate change dividend? 'It doesn't matter if investors believe in [man-made] climate change or not'
- 2. Farmer refuses to join 'carbon credit program' Rejects 'trading our liberty for money'
- 3. Climate Science Fraud at Albany University? Accusation of 'hiding' data
- 4. Global temps 2nd coldest April since 1999
- 5. Climatologist: 'Direct warming effect from extra CO2 is relatively small too small to be of much practical concern'
- 6. UN Warns: Climate change has 'affected physical growth and educational status of many children'
- 7. Claim: Global recession could worsen global warming
- 8. NYT reveals enviro strategies: Stop use of term global warming It 'turns people off fostering images of shaggy-haired liberals'
- 9. Shock: Global temperatures driven by US Postal Charges:)
- 10. Video/Transcript: The O'Reilly Factor features Climate Depot on Gore's path to become the first 'Carbon Billionaire'
- 11. NYT and Reporter Revkin Issue 'Correction' Admit 'Error' in Front Page Global Warming Article Touted By Gore!
- 12. Russian polar research institute predicts Arctic cooling/ice recovery to continue
- 13. Lawns will become sign of 'moral decadence' because of climate change
- 14. Dem. Majority Leader Reid sees global warming bill as his 'biggest headache' this Congress
- 15. Even 'very liberal' Democrats questioning climate bill